

Northern Spring Peeper

Status: Common but declining

They are the first frogs to begin calling in spring with a shrill, repetitious “peep.” The nights are filled with their singing in spring. In April 2011, I wrote a blog entry on them. They are a welcome sound to our evenings.

Wisconsin DNR EEK! has some good info.